

Travel Itinerary/ plan

5 day ideal travel plan :-

Day 1: Port Blair to Hut Bay (Little Andaman)

- Start Location: Port Blair
- End Location: Hut Bay Jetty, Little Andaman
- Transport: Government ferry (6–8 hours, book in advance)
- Activities:
 - Ferry journey with sunrise photography (landscape, ocean)
 - Check-in at eco-resort or homestay
 - Visit Butler Bay Beach during sunset for beach landscape photography
- Stay: Beachside eco-resort or homestay (e.g., Blue View, local tribal stay)
- Photography Focus: Seascapes, golden hour, silhouettes

Day 2: Waterfalls and Forest Exploration

- Morning Activity: Trek to Whisper Wave Waterfall
 - 25 km from Hut Bay
 - Rainforest trek (~1.5 hours)
 - Suitable for nature, macro, and waterfall photography
- Afternoon Activity: Visit White Surf Waterfall
 - Short drive from town
 - Good for slow-shutter photography
- Evening: Explore coconut plantations at RK Pur
- Stay: Hut Bay
- Photography Focus: Jungle flora, butterflies, birds, water photography
- Eco Activity: Observe organic farming methods and local practices

Day 3: Wildlife, Culture, and Lagoon

- Morning Activity: Ride to Elephant Point
 - Dense forest, possible elephant sightings
 - Use telephoto lens, keep distance
- Midday: Visit villages at RK Pur and Netaji Nagar
 - Capture local lifestyle and tribal architecture
 - Ask permission before portraits
- Evening: Lagoon or creek exploration near Hut Bay
 - Canoes, mangroves, and estuarine bird photography
- Stay: Beachside or village homestay
- Photography Focus: Candid portraits, wildlife, forest, reflections
- Eco Activity: Learn about tribal culture (avoid unauthorized areas)

Day 4: Hidden Beaches and Day-long Exploration

- Morning Activity: Sunrise shoot at Netaji Nagar Beach
 - Rock formations and early-morning fishing boats

- Midday Activity: Ride to South Bay or Harminder Bay
 - Quiet, offbeat beaches with minimal crowd
 - Good for drone shots, bird photography, tide pool macros
- Evening Activity: Sunset shoot at Butler Bay Beach
- Stay: Hut Bay
- Photography Focus: Sunrise, aerial views, beachscapes, tide zones
- Eco Activity: Hike with local guides, nature conservation awareness

Day 5: Return to Port Blair

- Morning Activity: Return ferry from Hut Bay to Port Blair
 - Confirm ferry schedule the previous day
 - Capture sunrise and open-sea views
- Photography Focus: Ocean views, sunrise

Things To Keep In Mind or Precautions while travelling in little Andaman:-

- Anyone who wishes to visit the island is required to have a permit that will be issued from Port Blair.
- It is recommended to go trekking along with a guide and geared up since no matter how beautiful the vistas may be their true nature is wild.
- It is advisable not to go surfing during monsoons months, i.e., between May and August.
- One cannot camp at this island since it is prohibited.
- It is recommended to keep with you the Little Andaman island map during your excursion.
- Always apply mosquito repellant cream to avoid beach flies.
- Recently, many cases of crocodiles spotting have occurred, therefore, it is recommended to stay away from places marked with warning signs.
- Food courts at Hut Bay offer some basic options. Therefore, if you are planning to cook your own food, make sure to bring your raw material and cookware.